Meet John Barrows.

If you've ever wondered who trains the sales force at Salesforce the answer is the incredible company JBarrows Sales Training founded by John Barrows. To say John is a rockstar in his field would be a significant understatement. 371,000 personal LinkedIn followers of JB would agree. Google, Box, LinkedIn and Slack are just a few of John's clients. Along with his daughter, John is also the author of "I Want To Be In Sales When I Grow Up". All of the proceeds go to Charlotte's favorite charity The World Wild Life Fund.

Fun Fact: to say JB is a Boston sports fan is the understatement of the century. In fact, he had Tom Brady sign his customized Patriots sports coat that he'll occasionally use as his LI profile pic.
